

MUSEUM OF THE HOME

Photo and audio consent form for parents or guardians of under 18s

The purpose of this consent form is to allow the Museum of the Home to permanently retain and use your child or young person's contribution.

Agreeing to this gives us permission to publish

- The voice recordings they upload
- Their first name and general location
- The photographs they upload
- A written version (from their voice recording) of their story

The primary use is the onsite digital guide. Other uses may include – but are not limited to – the Museum's website and social media platforms, print publicity (posters/leaflets), press releases and funding applications.

Declaration

I give the Museum of the Home permission to use the voice recordings and the photographs of my child or young person. I grant the Museum full rights to use these images and audio, and any reproductions or adaptations of them, for purposes to help the Museum achieve its aims. I understand that my child or young person may be recognisable from the photographs and the photos may be published alongside their first name and general location. I have answered the demographic questions on my child or young person's behalf.

Copyright agreement

I (or my child or young person) am/are the copyright holder of any photos provided and hereby fully and permanently assign to the Museum of the Home all copyright for use in all and any media, including those uses stated above. I understand we may still make use of the material for our own purposes.

Release

I am the parent or guardian, and have read and understood this agreement, and have agreed to the use of the photographs of my child or young person. (photographs of or by me).
