

MUSEUM OF THE HOME

Archive agreement

The purpose of this agreement is to allow the Museum of the Home to permanently retain and use your contribution and ensure that it is added to the Museum's collections in accordance with your wishes. Once added to the collection your material will be held by the Museum in perpetuity for future public benefit.

Use agreement

I understand that the material uploaded will be retained by the Museum of the Home, and that it will become part of the Documenting Homes archive and made available as a permanent public reference resource.

I understand that my material may be used for research; for museum activities, education resources, digital guides and exhibitions at the Museum; in printed matter, publications, and digital products by the Museum; and in exhibitions, publications, and other outputs by third parties that are deemed appropriate by the Museum.

If I am under 18 my parent/guardian has agreed to my completing the questions, has agreed to the use of my photographs (photographs of or by me) and has completed the demographic information on my behalf.

Copyright agreement

I am the copyright holder of the material I have uploaded and hereby fully and permanently assign to the Museum of the Home all copyright for use in all and any media, including those uses stated above.

I understand I may still make use of the material for my own private purposes.

Model consent

I agree that I have the necessary model consent from the individuals featured in any images, granting me permission to deposit and use the material.

Restrictions

Your full name will not be made publicly available and you will be referred to as you have specified.
