

Help shape how we think about home

ARE YOU A CHANGEMAKER?

MUSEUM OF
THE HOME

Think of your favourite room at home.

Think how well we'd know you if you invited us to see it.

The inner lives of our homes are utterly personal. But they are also part of a bigger narrative of taste, style and identity. This is a narrative that our Changemakers lead and shape.

Joining the Changemaker Circle gives you a special relationship with the Museum, the curators, directors and your fellow Changemakers.

When our members come together it's always special, whether it's at one of our 'At Home with...' dinners, workshops, private views or invitation-only cultural events. We bring together directors, philanthropists, academics, curators, designers, artists and thinkers to reveal and rethink the ways in which we live.

The generosity of our Changemakers is vital in ensuring we are able to keep entrance to the Museum free for all. The Changemaker Circle supports everything we do from exhibitions and acquisitions to school visits and projects in the community.

Join today and help shape how we think about home.
